Post-camp requirement: Scholarships are given on the stipulation that the recipient share their Hog Island experience with a presentation at the nearest Audubon chapter or at a KY Audubon Council bi-annual meeting. The presentation may be done in person or virtually (ZOOM, for example) within one year following the camp. The recipient will be expected to report on specific outcomes from the plan detailed in your narrative and describe how you have incorporated the knowledge you acquired into your work with students or with the public.

REQUIREMENTS

1. Completed application

2. Narrative: On a separate page, please explain how you plan to use your experience at Hog Island Audubon Camp to benefit yourself, your community and/or your students.

3. Letter of Recommendation: Please submit one letter of recommendation by email.

Application Deadline: March 30, 2024

Return materials by email. All application materials must be received by the deadline to be considered.

Please combine the application, the narrative, and the recommendation letter into a single Word document and send to Maggie Selvidge, Scholarship committee chair.

Email: selvidge@hesenergy.net

You will receive an acknowledgement via email that your application has been received.
